Coroners' Inqueste.

Street by Corrise Han Timoar.—Corner Widey held a inquest yesterday at No. 163 Fast Eleventh street pon the body of Bridget Ronan, a native of Ireland, aged wenty-eight years, who committed suicide by auttinger throat with a rager. Pecessed, it appeared, had been throat with a rance. Processed, it appeared, had been health for some months, and at times was afflicted fits of insanity. On Thursday evoning, while her and was absent, she procured a rayor, and, retiring perivacy of her bedroom, cut her threat from ear to Her sixter, who resides in the same house, entered apartment as deceased was dying, and found her lying le floor with the blood stained weapon clutched firmly er hand. The razor was promptly removed from grasp, when deceased, alaremed lest the wound should rowe fatal, commenced tearing it open with her flarand in a few moments afterwards expired. Verina accordance with the above facts.

HAR FATAL ASSAULT WITH A KNIFZ -Coroser Wilder top, at the New York Hospital, in the case of Christian topp, a butcher, doing business at the corner of Green pp, a butcher, doing business at the corner of Greench and North Moore streets, now lying: dangerously ill m the effects of a stab in the abdomen, received under following circumstances:—On Thursday evening, the t inst., Repp entered a grocery store opposite his at shop, and there got into an altercation with some nog men, who called him names and drove him from prem ses with potatoes and other harmless missiles, reaching the sidewalk be become involved in a diffitity with two men, memod Peter Kielly and Patrick her, one of whom drew a kinife and stabbod him in abdomen. The injuried man says he distinctly saw mite in one of their hands, but is unable to say which hem held the weapon. Upon the strongth of Repp's tement, which was taken in the form of a dying depoon, the Coroner issued his warrant for the apprehenof Mesers, Kielly and Maher, and-when they were ested committed them to await the serious of the unded man's injuries:

Infanticine Case in West Fortishi States.—As officer inningham, of the Twenty-high predict, was passing arough Fortieth street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues. In Wednesday night, he discovered the dead body of a sale child lying upon the sidewalk. Coruser Ramey was officed of the fact, and upon making an examination of be body it was discovered that the infant had been hoked to death. No clue could be obtained to the hot and areal mother or the perpetrator of the crime; southe jury were compelled to render a verdect of "Death by violence it the hands of some person unknews."
